Weekly Report 31 Aug 2026

SET Index signalled a bear trend by closing at 1588 level on Friday. This week, we forecast the SET market will stay weak and trade lower within 1560 – 1600 region. The USD/TH exchange rate resurged in recovery and settled at 33.13 on Friday. This week, we foresee the market will stay resilient and trade higher from 32.90 – 33.40 area.

Gold spot prices almost hit the USD4700 /oz top last week but settled lower at USD4455 /oz on Friday. This week, we target the market will wane and trade within USD4320 – USD4520 /oz region. Gold metals will encounter some profit-taking actions in market as traders will probably flight to buy U.S. Bonds.

WTI Crude spot prices dipped to USD80.00 /barrel and settled at USD82.78 /barrel before the weekend. This week, we project the market will thread sideways within USD80.00 – USD85.00 /barrel amid mixed trading activities. Traders will continue to stay observant at the outcome of U.S. – Iran conflict for gauging the market direction.

Silver spot prices fizzled out from above USD70.00 /oz top last week and closed at USD66.37 /oz on Friday. This week, the market is likely to weaken further and we target it will trade within USD64.40 – USD67.40 /oz region. Silver will follow the yellow metal trend and tend to lie low due to a recovering Dollar in coming week.
