SET Index slipped deeper and settled at 1465 on Friday. This week, we forecast the market will dip and bounce for a recovery within 1440 – 1500 region. Some liquidation is expected in Thai stock market due to moderate panic sentiment. The USD/THB exchange rate traded in a narrow range and closed at 33.55 on Friday. This week, we project a sideways trend will move into market and trade within 33.35 – 33.85 region.

Gold spot prices rebound last week from USD3875 /oz bottom and settled higher at USD4066 /oz on Friday. This week, we forecast the yellow metal will continue in the recovery and trade higher within USD3950 - USD4250 /oz range. Dollar might be firm but short-lived over this week, hence causing a swing to Gold prices with small demand.

WTI Crude spot prices had a sharp fall on Friday and settled at USD89.46 /barrel. This week, we foresee the market will remain moderately weak but likely to make a recovery towards the weekend. Overall range is target to trade from USD84.00 – USD92.00 /barrel region. The unexpected pierce above USD92.00 /barrel will rise to USD96.00 /barrel in case of an upward reversal.

Silver spot prices settled at USD51.91 /oz on Friday after bouncing off USD49.00 /oz support ground. This week, we outlook the market will tend to recover and trade from USD50.50 – USD55.00 /oz region. It will follow the yellow metal trend in case of recovery in precious metals.
